

Badrul Shah Badaruddin

Completed his medical training at National University of Malaysia (UKM) with Master in Orthopaedic Surgery. Completed an advanced trauma Fellowship in St George's Hospital in London. Further subspecialised in Revision Joint Replacement Surgery at Royal Adelaide Hospital, Adelaide. Apart from general orthopaedic & traumatology, he also specialises in the treatment of arthritis such as primary & revision joint replacement surgeries. Practices the current trends of minimally invasive surgeries, computer aided total knee surgeries & direct anterior approach for total hip replacement surgeries.