

Chong Pan Pan

Senior lecturer in Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, Faculty of Medicine, University of Malaya. Led the Good Manufacturing Practice Laboratory in National Orthopaedic Centre of Excellence in Research and Learning. Managing the newly provided clinical service using platelet-derived extracellular vesicles to treat musculoskeletal diseases. Research interest involves the current and innovative area of tissue engineering and manipulation of adult stem cells for future use as biological therapies for poorly regenerating tissues.