

Keith DK Luk

Graduated from the University of Hong Kong in 1977 and received his orthopaedic training in Hong Kong and the UK. Was the Head of Department at HKU from 2003 to 2012 and the Chair Professor until retirement in 2018. Also the Past President of the Hong Kong Orthopaedic Association, SICOT, and the Asia Pacific Spine Society. Has published over 400 refereed articles, 28 book chapters, edited 4 books and sits on editorial or advisory boards of 5 top international journals.