

Shams Amir Shamsul Bahar

Interests include peripheral nerve lesions, congenital hand and traumatic conditions involving the hand and wrist. Keen to develop awareness on the role of hand surgery and microsurgery in patients with tetraplegia and spasticity. A member of the Malaysian Society for Surgery of the Hand and reviews for the Malaysian Orthopaedic Journal. Currently an orthopaedic surgeon and lecturer in the Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, University of Malaya.