

Tunku Kamarul Zaman

Presently the Director of University of Malaya Medical Centre (UMMC), a premier 1500 bedded university hospital in Malaysia staffed by over 5,000 personnel. An orthopaedic surgeon with special interest in upper limb and microsurgery. Past Deputy Dean of Research for Faculty of Medicine in UMMC. Has published over 150 peer-reviewed articles in many impact-factored journals and has been invited to present the research groups and discoveries in numerous international scientific meetings.